Foundation day celebrated

Saransh Foundation celebrates an year of changing lives of differently abled children

Saaransh Foundation, the one-of-a-kind school for differently abled children in Gujarat celebrated its first Foundation Day recently. Famous Cricketer and the brand ambassador of the school, Irfan Pathan was present on the occasion.

For a school, celebrating Foundation Day is significant not only because of the number of years it has served the community, but also for the considerable benefit, the founding of the school has resulted to those it serves.

Located within the campus of Delhi Public School Gandhinagar bubbled up with activities and happy downpour on 29th evening. The students exhibited their hidden talent and exceptional abilities through dance numbers as well as a spectacular Fashion Show. Foundation chairman, Apoorva Goenka conducted a very touching talk show "Jina Isi-ka Naam Hai", where he interviewed of the school.

During her speech the Director of the Foundation, Rani Chaudhry launched a video on Life at Saaransh. The annual report highlighting the achievements and activities of the school was presented by Torch-bearer Manobina Chakraborty.

Students of Delhi Public School Gandhinagar along with a few members of staff of Saaransh Foundation staged a heart-warming play called "Sanga-harsh" which depicted the day-to-day life in Saaransh Foundation.

The Principal Atanu Rath, The Headmistress and the Headmaster of Delhi Public School Gandhinagar were among the esteemed
